

Beryl Rossow

4-24-90

GROTON - The funeral for Beryl Rossow, 94, Groton, was held Monday at United Methodist Church at Groton. The Rev. Wayne Tieszen officiated.

Burial was in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Aberdeen, under the direction of Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel, Groton.

She died Thursday, April 19, 1990, at Colonial Manor, Groton.

Beryl Stafford was born September 20, 1895, at Spencer Brook, Minn., to Robert and Amelda (Ellingwood) Stafford. She was educated in Minnesota and taught school there before coming to South Dakota in 1916. She then taught school at Ferney.

She married Ora Rossow at Aberdeen, January 2, 1918. They farmed in the Ferney area. She had lived in the Groton and Ferney areas since 1916. She had resided at Colonial Manor for the past two and one-half years.

She was a member of United Methodist Church at Groton.

Survivors include one son, Dallas Rossow, Groton; four grandchildren, Mrs. Emmet (Judy) Anderson, Groton, Jerry Rossow, Groton, Ginger Vickers, Groton, and Debbie Rossow, Las Vegas, Nev.; six great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, one son, one grandson and one brother.

Casketbearers were Raymond Reinhardt, Otto Schinkel, John Schinkel, James Hoops, Walter Schaller and Otho Schaller.

Organist was Marilyn Gibbs. David Sueltz sang, "Amazing Grace" and "Just A Closer Walk With Thee."